DECISION GRANTING ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On September 11, 2017, Ava Stansberry filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² Petitioner alleged that a tetanus diphtheria acellular pertussis vaccine she received on November 20, 2014, caused or significantly aggravated an alleged shoulder injury. (Petition at 1.) On December 3, 2019, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. (ECF No. 44).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated January 9, 2020 (ECF No. 49), requesting a total award of $40,342.12 (representing $39,231.40 in fees and $1,110.72 in costs). In accordance with General Order #9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses in the prosecution of this case. (ECF No. 49-3). Respondent reacted to the motion on January 14, 2020, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, and deferring to my discretion to determine the amount to be awarded. (ECF No. 50). Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's requests and find a reduction in the requested amount of fees to be awarded appropriate, for the reason listed below.

ANALYSIS

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Counsel must submit fee requests that include contemporaneous and specific billing records indicating the service performed, the number of hours expended on the service, and the name of the person performing the service. See Savin v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 85 Fed. Cl. 313, 316-18 (2008). Counsel should not include in their fee requests hours that are "excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary." Saxton v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521 (Fed. Cir. 1993) (quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983)). It is "well within the special master's discretion to reduce the hours to a number that, in [her] experience and judgment, [is] reasonable for the work done." Saxton, 3 F.3d. at 1522. Furthermore, a special master may reduce a fee request sua sponte, apart from objections raised by respondent and without providing a petitioner notice and opportunity to respond. See Sabella v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 209 (2009). A special master need not engage in a line-by-line analysis of petitioner's fee application when reducing fees. Broekelschen v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 102 Fed. Cl. 719, 729 (2011).

The petitioner "bears the burden of establishing the hours expended, the rates charged, and the expenses incurred." Wasson v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 24 Cl. Ct. at 482, 484 (1991). The Petitioner "should present adequate proof [of the attorney's fees and costs sought] at the time of the submission." Id. at 484 n.1. Petitioner's counsel "should make a good faith effort to exclude from a fee request hours that are excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary, just as a lawyer in private practice ethically is obligated to exclude such hours from his fee submission." Hensley, 461 U.S., at 434.

ATTORNEY FEES

A. Hourly Rates

Petitioner requests the following rates of compensation for the work of her attorneys: for Ramon Rodriguez, $375.00 per hour for work performed in 2016; for David Tierney, $254.00 per hour for work performed in 2019; and for Glen Sturtevant, $315 for work billed in 2017, $326 for work billed in 2018, $326 for work billed in 2019, and $353 for 2020 time. (ECF No. 49-1). Petitioner also requests rates ranging from $140.00 per hour to $156.00 per hour for paralegal work, depending on the individual paralegal and the year of the work. (Id.)

The rates requested for Mr. Rodriguez, Mr. Sturtevant and the paralegals are consistent with what has been previously awarded for their work in the Vaccine Program for time billed through 2019. Accordingly, no adjustment to the requested rates is necessary. However, I will make an adjustment for Mr. Tierney's 2019 rate. The rate requested exceeds Mr. Tierney's previously-awarded rate of $215.00 for time billed in 2019. See, e.g., Hernandez v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., No. 18-0137V, 2019 WL 5420107 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. September 20, 2019). I therefore reduce Mr. Tierney's rate the previously awarded rate of 2019 to $215.00 per hour. This reduces the fees to be awarded in the amount of $15.60.³

Mr. Sturtevant is requesting the increased rate of $353.00 per hour for his time billed in 2020. Based on my experience I find the requested increase for time billed in 2020 to be reasonable and award it herein. I also will allow the rate of $163.00 for time billed by his paralegals.

B. Administrative Time

Upon review of the billing records submitted, it appears that a number of entries are for tasks considered clerical or administrative. In the Vaccine Program, secretarial work "should be considered as normal overhead office costs included within the attorney's fee rates." Rochester v. U.S., 18 Cl. Ct. 379, 387 (1989); Dingle v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., No. 08-579V, 2014 WL 630473, at *4 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Jan. 24, 2014). "[B]illing for clerical and other secretarial work is not permitted in the Vaccine Program." Mostovoy v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 2016 WL 720969, at *5 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Feb. 4, 2016). A total of 11.90 hours was billed on tasks considered administrative including, receiving and paying invoices, organizing documents and creating and updating the client file. Examples of these clerical tasks include:

- March 3, 2016 (1.0 hrs) “Set up and prepared ICP”;
- May 17, 2016 (2.0 hrs) “Organized records from Eskenazi Health”;
- August 30, 2016 (0.30 hrs) “Organized/combined records from same”;
- July 21, 2017 (3.70 hrs) “Continuation of organizing records from Eskenazi Health”; AND
- August 7, 2017 (0.10 hrs) “attention to incoming invoice from same” (0.10 hrs) “update payment tracking log.”

(ECF No. 49-1 at 2-3., 6-8).⁴

The request for attorney’s fees will be reduced in the amount of $1,716.90 for all time considered administrative.⁵

ATTORNEY COSTS

Petitioner requests $1,110.72 in overall costs. (ECF No. 49 at 2). This amount is comprised of obtaining medical records, postage and the Court’s filing fee. I have reviewed all of the requested costs and find them to be reasonable and shall award it in full.

CONCLUSION

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner’s Motion for attorney’s fees and costs. I award a total of $38,609.62 (representing $37,498.90 in attorney’s fees and $1,110.72 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner’s counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.⁶

⁴ These are merely examples and not an exhaustive list.

⁵ This amount consists of ($140 x 3.40 hrs = $476) + ($145 x 7.30 hrs = $1,058.50) + ($152 x 1.20 hrs = $182.40) = $1,716.90.

⁶ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties may expedite entry of judgment by filing a joint notice renouncing their right to seek review.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
